SPEAKERS

Duane Headings is a soil consultant with International Ag Labs. Duane has assiduously studied the teachings of Dr. Carey Reams and International Ag Labs for the past 4 years. Duane comes with a strong background in turf management, market gardens, greenhouse consulting, production agriculture, and backyard gardens. Duane recently started farming 2 acres of produce with half of it devoted to bramble fruit. Duane lives in Green Forest Arkansas with his wife Janet, and their 5 children.

David Yoder is chairman of the Southern Iowa Produce Auction in Drakesville, Iowa. David has been raising and selling produce for 8 years and selling greenhouses and associated supplies for 7 years. Three years ago David began selling International Ag Labs' fertility products and began offering custom mixes for market gardens, greenhouses, and backyard gardens. David lives near Drakesville with his wife Edna Fay, and their 4 children.

Jon Frank is a partner in International Ag Labs. Jon started the high brix garden program in 2005 as an undertaking of IAL. From that the program has expanded to market gardens and greenhouses. Jon's focus is on two primary areas; soil stewardship and health to the consumer eating the produce. Jon and his wife Rebecca have 5 children and live in Granada Minnesota within shouting distance from the Iowa border.
